

Early Childhood Workforce Index 2016 WISCONSIN

IN WISCONSIN, there are 411,919 children age birth through five years; 73 percent of these children live in households where all available parents are currently working, and 26 percent of all Wisconsin children are part of low-income families. It is widely agreed that the current early care and education system across states is woefully underfunded. The cost of services is out of reach for many working families, including those who earn middle-class wages. At the same time, large swaths of early childhood teachers — even those with college degrees — earn unlivable wages.

More than 18,080 members of the early childhood teaching workforce provide services to children in Wisconsin.
